The Union Pacific railroad company maintain one ward, and pay one dollar per week for each bed while empty, and five dollars per week when occupied. This ward is in charge of Dr. S. D. Mercer and Dr. H. Hertzman, the company's surgeons, and contains seventeen beds. Nearly all of the beds were occupied.

There are at present seventy patients in the various wards, twenty-five of them are supported by sweet charity, the week at the Catholic cathedral in honor of its balance of them yaying. The charges in ward are five dollars per week. Four hundred and seventy tients have been treated since January 1st 1884. Our city has no hospital of its own and it would be a good plan for our council to take the matter up and grant an appropriation sufficient to maintain ward in this institution and have it presided over by the city physician. At present nearly all people who are hurt by accident or are taken sick, who are poor and have no friends, are sent there by the police, as very few people like to go to the poor house or jail, the only places that the county pro

The Church of Israel on Twenty-third and Harney Nearly Completed.

A Brief Description of It-To be Dedicated Next Friday.

The sanctuary of the church of Israel such doctrines as you are now seeking to on Twenty-third and Harney streets, in this city, is rapidly approaching completion and will soon be occupied as a place of worship. Of all the church edifices a precipice. Your own position might be in this city none are more cozy or accomin the path of a cyclone. I say give modating than this one will be when everbody a chance and act like white- finished. Situated in a beautiful little grove of natural growth it seems a most fitting place for the worship of God.

This structure, though not imposing by its massiveness, manifests fine taste and design on the part of its builders. It is story and basement, with a gallery over lighted by three pairs of mullion win- Lynch and P. J. Barrett. dows on each side, of stained blass. most beautiful designs and patterns. The pulpit platform is at the north end of the building. It is approached by steps from each end from the main floor, and is closed by a balustrade with spaces set apart for the president and vice the city council Friday evening, members president. The pulpit, with reading desk combined, occupies the center of this platform. At its rear and elevated four steps, is the tabernacle space. This is separated from the main pulpit by a large arch. The tabernacle is one of the most beautiful features of the structure and is five feet in width two in depth and twelve in height, and will be used as the archive for the parchments containing the old testament written in the Hebrew language and read at certain times during worship.

The main entrance is on Harney street and is reached by two flights of steps leading to the main porch connected with the vestibule by two double door entrances, opposite which are two others leading into the auditorium. At the west end of the vestibule is a stairway leading up into the gallery, and one to the basement below. This apartment which will be used as a place for Sunday School, festivities, etc., has a double entrance also from Harney street.

The reading desk will be supplied with park, next Sunday, the proceeds to go to artificial light, from two standards of nine jets each. The auditorium proper, will be lighted by a chandalier of thirty jets and two double brackets on each side. The gallery will also have two nine candle jet standards.

On next Friday evening and Saturday morning, this beautiful little structure will be formally dedicated. Two noted Rabbis, one from Cincinnati and the second from Philadelpia, will be present to officiate at the ceremonyof consecration. A choir of the young ladies and gentlemen of the congregation is now busily engaged in preparing the choral music church in the east nearer than Des Momes or St. Joseph, Mo., and the first one west is at Denver, Colorado. The members of the Congregation of this city speak with a feeling of pride of their beautiful edifice, and well they may, for to them belongs the honor of having reared the first Israliteish church in the state of Nebraska.
